Prouty brothers, who are building a sawmill on the Wahanna river near Seaside, have incorporated as the Prouty Lumber & Box company and will soon be putting rough and dry lumber and box shooks on the market. J. A. Prouty is president, A. N. Prouty is vice president and F. W. Prouty, Jr., is secretary. The mill will shortly be put in operation to saw enough lumber for dry kilns and the necessary buildings. As soon as these are completed the mill will start full capacity. Electric power will be furnished by the Seaside Light & Power company, which will also extend its day service to other shops and factories in the city. Heretofore the electric plant has only been giving a night service. There is a possibility that the box factory of the defunct Seaside Lumber & Manufacturing company, which has been idle for the past three years, will resume operation. The machinery from the sawmill of the defunct concern was sold to Prouty brothers and is now being installed.

J. A. Prouty, a millowner of Seaside, has purchased the Nehalem Lumber company's sawmill and timber holdings at Timber, Ore., on the line of the Pacific Railroad & Navigation company. The Nehalem Lumber company was owned by A. Neppach and the Wittenberg family and the sale carries with it a townsite of about 200 acres, containing from 30,000,000 to 40,000,000 feet of fir timber. The new owners will repair and improve the mill and expect to commence operations on a large scale directly after the first of the year. Prouty is one of the three brothers, who have large interests in and around Seaside.

June Prouty Weds Lester Horton At Lovely Service

Miss June Prouty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Prouty of Astoria, became the bride of Lester Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton also of this city, at a lovely ceremony held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop reading the services.

The church was lovely in decorations of greens and late summer flowers. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Dan C. Hall sang "I Love You Truly" and "Sweetest Story Ever Told." Mrs. C. A. Reed played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown, fashioned on the princess lines with a long train and small built-up collar. Her long white tulle veil was caught coronet style at the back of her head. She carried a lovely bride's bouquet of pale yellow rose buds and bouvardia.

Miss Patricia Prouty, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, wore a waltz blue satin gown, fitted on the basque style with a gathered waistline and short puff sleeves. The Misses Peggy and Virginia Prouty, sisters of the bride, were her bridesmaids, wearing similarly styled gowns of rose satin. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of pink sweetpeas and the bridesmaids carried similar nosegays of pale blue sweetpeas.

Best man for Mr. Horton was Eugene Mellison, cousin of the groom, of Seattle, Wash. Ushers for the wedding were Donald Goodall, Ray Prouty, George Peeke and Raymond Horton.

Mrs. A. N. Prouty wore a wine colored afternoon dress and a lovely corsage of gardenias and Mrs. Horton, a lovely black afternoon dress with a similar corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the wedding. The bride's table was attractive with a large wedding cake set off with white tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Lucy Horton, sister of the groom, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Dorothy Haase and Miss Ruth Prouty poured. Assisting about the rooms was Miss Helen Horton.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home here in Astoria where Mr. Horton is employed by the Fisher Brothers Hardware company. For going away the bride wore a wine ensemble with a brown fur coat and brown accessories.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Margaret Prouty, Miss Gloria Prouty and Mrs. Thompson of Portland and Eugene Mellison of Seattle.

June Prouty Weds Lester Horton At Lovely Service

Miss June Prouty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Prouty of Astoria, became the bride of Lester Horton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Horton also of this city, at a lovely ceremony held Friday evening at 8 o'clock at the Methodist church with the Rev. P. M. Blenkinsop reading the services.

The church was lovely in decorations of greens and late summer flowers. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Dan C. Hall sang "I Love You Truly" and "Sweetest Story Ever Told." Mrs. C. A. Reed played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown, fashioned on the princess lines with a long train and small built-up collar. Her long white tulle veil was caught coronet style at the back of her head. She carried a lovely bride's bouquet of pale yellow rose buds and bouvardia.

Miss Patricia Prouty, sister of the bride, and maid of honor, wore a waltz blue satin gown, fitted on the basque style with a gathered waistline and short puff sleeves. The Misses Peggy and Virginia Prouty, sisters of the bride, were her bridesmaids, wearing similarly styled gowns of rose satin. The maid of honor carried a nosegay of pink sweetpeas and the bridesmaids carried similar nosegays of pale blue sweetpeas.

Best man for Mr. Horton was Eugene Mellison, cousin of the groom, of Seattle, Wash. Ushers for the wedding were Donald Goodall, Ray Prouty, George Peeke and Raymond Horton.

Mrs. A. N. Prouty wore a wine colored afternoon dress and a lovely corsage of gardenias and Mrs. Horton, a lovely black afternoon dress with a similar corsage.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the wedding. The bride's table was attractive with a large wedding cake set off with white tapers in silver candelabra. Miss Lucy Horton, sister of the groom, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Dorothy Haase and Miss Ruth Prouty poured. Assisting about the rooms was Miss Helen Horton.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home here in Astoria where Mr. Horton is employed by the Fisher Brothers Hardware company. For going away the bride wore a wine ensemble with a brown fur coat and brown accessories.

Out of town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Margaret Prouty, Miss Gloria Prouty and Mrs. Thompson of Portland and Eugene Mellison of Seattle.

Death Takes Lumberman W. Prouty

Walter Irwin Prouty, 59, widely-known lumberman of the lower Columbia district, died suddenly Monday night at 11:30 o'clock in a local hospital. Death was apparently the result of a heart attack.

Prouty was vice president and one of the founders of the Prouty Lumber & Box company, with which he has been identified for 25 years at Timber and at Warrenton since 1922. The mill is closed today and will be closed again Thursday afternoon during the funeral services.

Walter Irwin Prouty was born in Lawton, Iowa, on November 2, 1884. He came west with his parents when 17 years of age to Bellingham, Wash., where he graduated from high school. He was married there in 1905 to Isobel Cummins. For several years he owned and operated a grocery store in Bellingham and then with his two brothers, the late Jack A. Prouty and Emery S. Prouty, he organized the Prouty Lumber & Box company.

Prouty served as mayor of the town, commissioner and school director. He was a member of Gateway lodge AF & AM of Warrenton and Astoria lodge No. 180, PBOE.

Funeral Thursday

For many years he was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, where funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Joyce Kendall officiating. Graveside services following will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Warrenton. The Hughes-Ransom mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements.

The home of Mrs. C. R. Gebott was the scene of a merry old-time gathering Thursday evening in North Warrenton, when the Pollyannas met dressed in old-fashioned clothes. Mrs. Maude E. Greer was attired in an imported Scotch plaid dress and hat 60 years old; Mrs. W. C. Lester in a Kentucky-homespun linen dress of 30 years ago; Mrs. W. I. Prouty wore a hat in style 50 years ago. The other guests were attired in styles ranging from 1896 to the present date. An old-time singing contest was enjoyed and in a guessing contest Mildred Lester won first prize, with Mrs. Maude E. Greer taking consolation. Election of officers resulted in the following: President, Carolyn Beyer; vice president, Nellie Kindred; secretary, Kathryn Hurlbutt; treasurer, Lulu Catto. These officers will serve for a term of six months. At a late hour a dainty luncheon was served to the following guests: Mrs. P. G. Cook, Mrs. Maude E. Greer, Mrs. Mary K. Moore, Mrs. W. C. Death Takes Lumberman W. Prouty

Walter Irwin Prouty, 59, widely known lumberman of the lower Columbia district, died suddenly Monday night at 11:30 o'clock in a local hospital. Death was apparently the result of a heart attack.

Prouty was vice president and one of the founders of the Prouty Lumber & Box company, with which he has been identified for 25 years at Timber and at Warrenton since 1922. The mill is closed today and will be closed again Thursday afternoon during the funeral services.

Comes West

Walter Irwin Prouty was born in Lawton, Iowa, on November 2, 1884. He came west with his parents when 17 years of age to Bellingham, Wash., where he graduated from high school. He was married there in 1905 to Isobel Cummins. For several years he owned and operated a grocery store in Bellingham and then with his two brothers, the late Jack A. Prouty and Emery S. Prouty, he organized the Prouty Lumber & Box company.

Prouty was mayor of the town of Warrenton, school commissioner and school director. He was a member of Gateway lodge AF & AM of Warrenton and Astoria lodge No. 130, PBOE.

Funeral Thursday

For many years he was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, where funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Joyce Kendall officiating. Graveside services following will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Warrenton. The Hughes-Ransom mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Marian Harkin of Portland, two sons, Don of Portland and Dick of Seaside, three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Dichter of Seaside, Mrs. Eva Parnell of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Stella Joseph of Sioux City, Iowa, and one brother, Emery S. Prouty, now of Winlock, Wash. Three grandchildren also survive.

Death Takes Lumberman W. Prouty

Walter Irwin Prouty, 58, widely known lumberman of the lower Columbia district, died suddenly Monday night at 11:30 o'clock in a local hospital. Death was apparently the result of a heart attack.

Prouty was vice president and one of the founders of the Prouty Lumber & Box company, with which he has been identified for 25 years at Timber and at Warrenton since 1922. The mill is closed today and will be closed again Thursday afternoon during the funeral services.

Came West

Walter Irwin Prouty was born in Lawton, Iowa, on November 2, 1884. He came west with his parents when 17 years of age to Bellingham, Wash., where he graduated from high school. He was married there in 1905 to Isabel Cummins. For several years he owned and operated a grocery store in Bellingham and then with his two brothers, the late Jack A. Prouty and Emery S. Prouty, he organized the Prouty Lumber & Box company.

Prouty was mayor of the town of Astoria and served as commissioner and school director. He was a member of Gateway lodge AF & AM of Warrenton and Astoria lodge No. 180, PEOE.

Funeral Thursday

For many years he was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, where funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Joyce Kendall officiating. Graveside services following will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Warrenton. The Hughes-Ransom mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Marian Hakala of Portland, two sons, Don of Portland and Dick of Seaside, three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Dichter of Seaside, Mrs. Eva Parnell of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Stella Joseph of Sioux City, Iowa, and one brother, Emery S. Prouty, now of Winlock, Wash. Three grandchildren also survive.

MRS. WALTER I. PROUTY

Mrs. Walter (Isabel) Prouty of Portland died July 7 in a local convalescent home. Services will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. in the Fuiten-Frissen Mortuary chapel in Beaverton.

Concluding rites and burial will be at Ocean View cemetery, Astoria, Thursday at 3 p.m.

Mrs. Prouty was born in Cheboygan, Mich., the daughter of John and Isabella Cummins. She completed her education with graduation from Bellingham Normal in Bellingham, Wash.

She was married to Walter I. Prouty, prominent Oregon lumberman, in Bellingham September 20, 1905. The couple made their home in Warrenton, where he owned and operated the Prouty Lumber and Box company. Prouty died July 13, 1943, at which time she moved to Portland, where she had lived since.

Mrs. Prouty was a member of Eastern Star in Astoria, Daughters of the Nile, Nydia Temple 4, Portland, and the Valley Community Presbyterian church, Portland.

Survivors include a daughter, Marian I. Hakala, Vancouver, Wash.; a son, Donald C. Prouty, Portland; a brother, Roy F. Cummins, Lake Worthy, Fla.; six grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

ISABEL PROUTY

Isabel Prouty, former Warrenton resident, died in Portland Sunday evening.

Services were expected to be held Thursday.

Her husband, Walter I. Prouty, who died several years ago, was co-owner of the Prouty mill in Warrenton.

Survivors include a son, Donald C., Portland, and a daughter, Mrs. Marian Hankel, Portland.

Donald C. Prouty

June 8, 1915-March 26, 1981

Donald C. Prouty, 65, Clatskanie, formerly of Warrenton, died March 26, in Portland.

He was born June 8, 1915, in Bellingham, Wash., the son of Walter and Isobel Prouty. He graduated from Oregon State University and was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. Mr. Prouty was a veteran of World War II and was a member of Louis Larsen Post 68, American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Clatskanie Post 2994.

CLASS HISTORY

May Seniors 1935

Officers

President Edward Erickson
Vice-President Sigfred Jensen
Secretary Vieno Osterlund
Treasurer Ellen Arvola

Entering as a new crop of green sophomores, the class of 1935 soon began to show their pep and blossom into the class it has now become, one of the best ever to leave the portals of Astoria High School. The leadership of Wally Johansen was most important in the success of the first year men and women, but backing him up were Miss Jean Sim and Miss Hilda Branstator, as able advisers.

Outstanding in the year's achievements was the annual Sophomore Hop. The sophomores, according to tradition, built a huge bonfire to climax the Salem rally of the year 1932. When it came time for these selfsame sophomores to be considered upperclassmen, they were ready to assume all the dignity and responsibility that goes with the Junior class.

To show their earnestness this class proceeded to win the annual Pep pennant from under the very eyes of the gloating seniors. With a record attendance, "Polly with a Past" was produced and chalked up a victory in the dramatic field. Frank Woodfield led the grand march at the Junior Prom as well as the Junior class. Under the directorship of Miss Edith Clifford and Miss Violet Crofoot, the juniors called their second year in Astoria High School a success and moved on to higher levels.

Under the guidance of Miss Zoe Allen, Miss Margaret Smith, and Edward Erickson, the class presented the play, "The Man on Stilts." It was the first time any play with so large a cast has ever been given in Astoria. With the Senior Ball, the class bade goodbye to the January seniors and turned their eyes toward the picnic, the banquet, the play, the prom, baccalaureate, and commencement, with Mr. Warner to give the parting speech to the May seniors of '35.

Anne Marie Tetlow, Richard Barss Wed Sunday

Miss Anne Marie Tetlow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen H. Tetlow of Warrenton, became an early fall bride of Richard Barss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard P. Barss of Takoma Park, Md., at a pretty Sunday afternoon service at 4 o'clock in the St. Joseph's Catholic church in Salem with Rev. Father T. J. Bernards officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white taffeta gown, made with long sleeves and a court train. Her long veil was caught with orange blossoms and she carried a round bouquet of lilacs of the valley and bouvardia.

Mrs. Edward Eugene Horgan Jr. of this city was the matron of honor and was gowned in blue taffeta made with a square neck, with sleeves edged in pleating and a bouffant skirt.

Mrs. Dan Young, nee Marjorie Metzger, was bridesmaid and wore a dress similar to Mrs. Horgan's. They both carried nosegays of white daisies and delphinium.

~~Raymond Barss, the bride's brother~~ and Richard Bailey and Gilbert Mather were ushers.

Raymond Barton played Canon's "Ave Marie" preceding the ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Metzger. Miss Millie Bosshart of Warrenton, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Rudolf Bosshart, another aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Metzger poured.

For traveling Mrs. Barss wore a plumbeury wool ensemble, black velvet hat and black accessories. After a trip to California the couple will be at home in Silverton where Mr. Barss will be a member of the faculty.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Barss are graduates of Oregon State college. She is a member of Delta Zeta and he is affiliated with Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Guests attending the wedding from Warrenton were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Falleur, Mrs. Walter Prouty, Miss Marian Prouty, Rudolf Haakela, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Bosshart and three children, Miss Mildred Flecken, Miss Millie Bosshart, Mrs. Jacob Bosshart Jr., Arthur Danielson, Syd Williams and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Tetlow. Mr. and Mrs. William Tremblay of Willamina were guests also.

Dichter Elected To Seaside Board For District 10

SEASIDE, June 22 — Ted Ditcher will take the place of C. B. Compton on the schoolboard of district No. 10 as the result of an election held Monday night at the Central school. Mrs. Frances C. Yoder was re-elected clerk. Neither had opposition. Mr. Compton was not a candidate for re-election.

That the Central grade school is in an excellent financial condition was shown by the report of the clerk. The district has a cash balance of $3,834.06 at the present time, plus a cash balance to the credit of the district of $3,180.15 in the county treasurer's office, an amount available to the district at any time, making a total of $7,014.21. The cash balance at the beginning of the school year was $2,091.43.

The Union high school election will be held next Monday from 2 to 7 p. m. at the high school building. The only candidate for director will be P. F. Dempsey, as his name was alone on the ballot when the date for the filing of candidacy ended last week.

Death Takes Lumberman W. Prouty

Walter Irwin Prouty, 59, widely-known lumberman of the lower Columbia district, died suddenly Monday night at 11.30 o'clock in a local hospital. Death was apparently the result of a heart attack.

Prouty was vice president and one of the founders of the Prouty Lumber & Box company, with which he has been identified for 25 years at Timber and at Warrenton since 1922. The mill is closed today and will be closed again Thursday afternoon during the funeral services.

Came West

Walter Irwin Prouty was born in Lawton, Iowa, on November 2, 1884. He came west with his parents when 17 years of age to Bellingham, Wash., where he graduated from high school. He was married there in 1905 to Isobel Cummins. For several years he owned and operated a grocery store in Bellingham and then with his two brothers, the late Jack A. Prouty and Emery S. Prouty, he organized the Prouty Lumber & Box company.

He served as mayor of the town, commissioner and school director. He was a member of Gateway lodge AF & AM of Warrenton and Astoria lodge No. 130, PBOE.

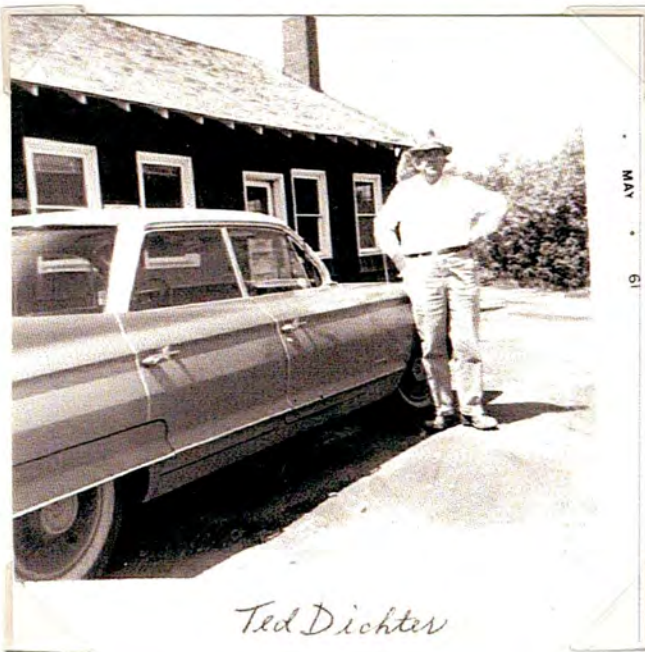

Funeral Thursday

For many years he was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, where funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Joyce Kendall officiating. Graveside services following will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Warrenton. The Hughes Ransom mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Marian Hakala of Portland, two sons, Don of Portland, and Dick of Seaside; three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Dichter of Seaside, Mrs. Eva Parnell of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Stella Joseph of Sioux City, Iowa, and one brother, Emery S. Prouty, now of Winlock, Wash. Three grandchildren also survive.

Death Takes Lumberman W. Prouty

Walter Irwin Prouty, 59, widely-known lumberman of the lower Columbia district, died suddenly Monday night at 11:30 o'clock in a local hospital. Death was apparently the result of a heart attack.

Prouty was vice president and one of the founders of the Prouty Lumber & Box company, with which he has been identified for 25 years at Timber and at Warrenton since 1922. The mill is closed today and will be closed again Thursday afternoon during the funeral services.

Comes West

Walter Irwin Prouty was born in Lawton, Iowa, on November 2, 1884. He came west with his parents when 17 years of age to Bellingham, Wash., where he graduated from high school. He was married there in 1905 to Isobel Cummins. For several years he owned and operated a grocery store in Bellingham and then with his two brothers, the late Jack A. Prouty and Emery S. Prouty, he organized the Prouty Lumber & Box company.

Prouty served as mayor of the town, commissioner and school director. He was a member of Gateway lodge AF & AM of Warrenton and Astoria lodge No. 130, PBOE.

Funeral Thursday

For many years he was a member of the Warrenton Methodist church, where funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Joyce Kendall officiating. Graveside services following will be under the auspices of the Masonic lodge of Warrenton. The Hughes-Ransom mortuary is in charge of funeral arrangements.

He is survived by his widow, a daughter, Mrs. Marian Hakala of Portland, two sons, Don of Portland, and Dick of Seaside; three sisters, Mrs. Blanche Dichter of Seaside, Mrs. Eva Parnell of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Stella Joseph of Sioux City, Iowa; and one brother, Emery S. Prouty, now of Winlock, Wash. Three grandchildren also survive.

SEASIDE. (Special)—Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Eva Prouty, former resident of this city. She passed away at her home at Winlock, Wash. Wednesday. Mrs. Prouty was born December 4, 1890 in Buena Vista, Ore.

Mrs. Prouty lived here several years. Her husband, the late Emery Prouty, was interested in the Prouty Lumber and Box company when it operated here. She was a past matron of Maple Chapter No. 95 OES, having served that organization in 1922.

Survivors include her mother, Mrs. Molly Baldwin of Winlock; two children, Joann and Melvin, Winlock and a brother Thomas Baldwin, Redding, Calif. Funeral services will be held at Winlock Sunday.

JOANN PROUTY

Gleaming Streamlined Joanne Joins Astoria's Yacht Fleet; Boat Owned By Arthur Prouty

Gleaming white, streamlined according to the latest modern design and seaworthy, the cabin cruiser Joanne built for Commodore A. N. Prouty of the Astoria Yacht club was launched from the ways of the Astoria Marine Construction company shipyards Sunday. The craft was designed and built by Joseph M. Dyer, prominent marine architect.

As it left the ways the vessel was christened by Joanne Prouty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Prouty, Winlock, Wash., and niece of Commodore Prouty. After being launched the craft was taken to the yacht club moorings from which point Commodore Prouty took numerous groups of guests for short trips.

In 36 Feet Long.

The Joanne is a 36-foot cruiser powered by an 85 horsepower Chrysler marine engine which will give a top speed of about 16 miles per hour and a cruising speed of about 13 miles per hour. She has a 2-foot 6-inch beam and draws only about three feet.

Despite her trim lines which gives her a rakish look, the Joanne has sleeping accommodations for about eight persons. There are two bunks in the fore and a double and single berth in the after stateroom. There is also provision for a double berth in the pilot house.

Will Install Galley.

A full galley is to be installed in the Joanne and there is a lavatory located amidships. The craft has a fairly large closet adjoining the after stateroom and has considerable cupboard space.

The power plant of the Joanne is located aft instead of being under the pilot house as in many cruisers. This eliminates much noise and since the engine is mounted on rubber there is a complete lack of vibration.

The hull of the Joanne is constructed of fir and she is trimmed with mahogany.

Prouty brothers, who are building a sawmill on the Wahanna river near Seaside, have incorporated as the Prouty Lumber & Box company and will soon be putting rough and dry lumber and box shooks on the market. J. A. Prouty is president, A. N. Prouty is vice president and F. W. Prouty, Jr., is secretary. The mill will shortly be put in operation to saw enough lumber for dry kilns and the necessary buildings. As soon as these are completed the mill will start full capacity. Electric power will be furnished by the Seaside Light & Power company, which will also extend its day service to other shops and factories in the city. Heretofore the electric plant has only been giving a night service. There is a possibility that the box factory of the defunct Seaside Lumber & Manufacturing company, which has been idle for the past three years, will resume operation. The machinery from the sawmill of the defunct concern was sold to Prouty brothers and is now being installed.

Fatal Accident in Ocean Surf

FRED PROUTY OF SEASIDE
DROWNED THERE TUES-DAY MORNING

Fred Prouty, one of the owners of the Prouty Lumber & Box company plant at Seaside, was accidentally drowned in the surf off Seaside early Tuesday morning. The remains drifted ashore a few hours later and were shipped this morning to Bellingham, Wash., for interment. Monday evening a party consisting of Fred Prouty, his brother, Arthur Prouty, C. A. Karl and Roy Moran, left in the launch Sea Wolf on a trip to sea to fish for rock cod. They started to return with the incoming tide about 4:30 Tuesday morning and as they entered the surf at the mouth of the Necanicum river, the craft was capsized. Karl, being an expert swimmer, immediately struck out for the shore to get assistance, telling the others to cling to the overturned boat. So soon as Karl reached the beach, he spread the alarm, the fire bell was rung and within a few minutes scores of people had responded to give assistance. In the meantime, however, the launch sank and the three men clinging to her were forced to strike out for the beach. Moran and Arthur Prouty succeeded after a hard struggle in gaining the shore but Fred Prouty was overcome and went to the bottom. His body was cast up on the beach about four hours later. There was a gash across his forehead indicating that he was injured when the launch capsized.

The deceased was 28 years of age and beside his brothers, left a widow, who at the time of the accident, was at Bellingham, Wash., attending the funeral of her sister-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Prouty, who died at Seaside a few days ago. The craft was formerly the launch "I Should Worry," and was recent purchased by the Prouty brothers from the Seaside Boat company.

Keith Edward Parker

Jan. 6, 1948 - July 21, 2011

Keith was born Jan. 6, 1948, in Fort Lewis, Wash., to Frank Parker and Margaret (Prouty) Parker. He passed away July 21, 2011, in Coos Bay.

Keith grew up in Astoria, graduating from Astoria High School and Clatsop Community College. He then went on to graduate from OIT in Klamath Falls with degrees in automotive and diesel mechanics. He spent the summer months working on Eddie Goodrich's fishing vessel, the F/V Mel-Don out of Astoria and earned enough to pay for his college education.

Keith and Janice Franz were married March 22, 1969, in Coos Bay. They spent the first year of their marriage in Kodiak, Alaska, where Keith worked for Littrell Supply Co. and for West Coast Trucking as a diesel mechanic before going to work for Rockpoint Logging where he drove a self-loader for 35 years. He loved driving log truck and looked forward to going to work every day. When he wasn't logging, Keith spent most of his free time working on their ranch on Daniels Creek where he and Janice had lived for the past 41 years.

Keith loved camping, especially in the Ruby Mountains of Nevada and the Redwoods of California, floating the Umpqua, fishing at Diamond Lake with his father-in-law, Dick and spending time with his family. His biggest thrill of all was watching his son, Jeff, race his Toyota 4x4 in the mud drags. Keith was a gentle, hardworking man; a man of few words who had a heart of gold. He was always willing to help anyone in need. He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Keith is survived by his wife of 42 years, Janice Parker of Coos Bay; son, Jeff Parker of Coos Bay and grandson, Tyler of Corvallis; brother, Frank Parker of Dayton; sister, Becky Dacasin and her husband, Al of Vancouver, Wash; sister, Terry Parker and her husband, Barr Washburn of Eugene; sister, Heidi Morris and her husband, Chris of Rancho Palos Verdes, California; as well as Amy Webster and son, Adam; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Keith was preceded in death by his parents, Frank Freeman Parker and Margaret Ann Parker. Private cremation rites were held at Ocean View Memory Gardens in Coos Bay.

You are invited to join our family in a celebration honoring Keith's life. Join us at Shively Hall, located near the Astoria Reservoir in Shively Park at 1:00 PM Saturday, October 15, 2011 for a casual sharing of lite refreshments memories and a few of Keith's favorite things.
